SAUDI ECONOMY IN BRIEF

Saudi Arabia is Known as the largest free market economy in the Middle East and North Africa holding 25% share of the total Arab GDP. The Kingdom's geographic location provides easy access to export markets in Europe, Asia and Africa. It has a continuously expanding domestic market, Which is adding to a young population with strong buying power.

The Investment climate in the Kingdom reflects traditions of liberal, open market private enterprise policies. It has an impressive record of political and economic stability and a modern world-class infrastructure. The Saudi economy has witnessed improvements in economic, social and urban aspect of life.

For 2007, spending is budgeted at SR 380 billion ($ 101.3 billion) compared to revenues of SR 400 billion ($ 106.7), resulting in a projected surplus of SR 20 billion ($5.3 billion).

THE EASTERN PROVINCE :

The Eastern Province has common borders with Kuwait, Iraq, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and Sultanate of Oman. The Eastern Province is the largest region in the Kingdom. Its extended flat area is 778,500 square kilometers, and extends for 700 kilometers along the coast of the Arabian Gulf. The Eastern province represents 36% of the area of the Kingdom, and is considered to be the Kingdom's largest industrial and commercial area comprising 86% of the Saudi Basic Industries.

SAUDI ICT :

Information and Communication Technology are services that support National Industries. However, we know that information and communication are required and used by these Industries to conduct their businesses.

Whether you are looking for new clients in a domestic market, new business chances in an export market, or a global presence on the world stage, we have an event to meet your needs. Saudi ICT is the guaranteed passage for the Saudi Communication & IT market and neighboring Gulf markets.
